Sector-85 & 99, Mohali

It is the way Punjab loves to live.

In the sound of laughter that rings through open hearts and open spaces.

Through windows that pour in affection and doors that lead to happiness.

Within festive neighbourhoods that burst with energy and joy.

In the fragrance of the air when the first drops of rain strike the earth.

In the company of stately mountains and playful ridges.

Over everyday moments and warm conversations.

In the comfort of relationships that have been nurtured over time.

In abundance of luxury and grandeur.

It is a golden state of living that Punjab loves.

*And it is here at Wave Gardens
Luxury Condominiums.*

Life is Beautiful

Strikingly beautiful towers stand amidst 75% open spaces. The equation is breathtaking.

But the genius of design seamlessly harmonizes Wave Gardens with its lush surroundings creating an incomparable haven.

Little wonder that the apartments in it are each a private shangrila, interrupted only by natural light and air. And apart from opening up to immense space, they also open up to a panoramic view of the Shivalik Range.

Comfort, convenience, luxury and grandeur join hands with nature at Wave Gardens to give you a golden state of living. And that's how life should be.

An Ode to Class

The apartments in Wave Gardens are undoubtedly a treat to set eyes upon. But as you set your feet inside one, you will realise that it is indeed a perfect blend of comfort, convenience and luxury.

Maximum space balances with perfect aesthetics. Sleek finishes combine with top-notch fittings and fixtures. Natural light for perfect day-settings meet mood lighting for the nights. Ample ventilation matches the thrill of automated drapes and fans.

An overall sense of style and luxury makes its presence felt so tastefully at Wave Gardens that you will notice that condo living has definitely touched a new level of class.

Art and Soul of Nature

Lending a tranquil serenity to the energy of apartment life, the greens at this luxury haven are less startling and more soulful.

A lot of genius has gone into balancing the over-staged nature of landscape design with the royal exuberance of raw earthiness that Punjab loves. Hence, there are 75% open spaces complimenting the natural splendour of the Shivaliks that stand at a distance.

Unexpected aesthetic details like fountains and lakes adorn the natural course of the greens, making the art of nature come alive with the art of design.

Connoisseur's Club

Amidst a million reasons to celebrate should be an arena that befits every celebration. The result is a clubhouse with a modernist elegance that exudes a timeless grace and sits pretty right next to Wave Gardens.

The lovely sense of dynamism in it is that it houses all the recreational facilities that connoisseurs of luxury look for. Like an all-purpose recreation hall, a luxury swimming pool, a world-class tennis court along with a host of other indoor games, a fully equipped gym, a health club and a world-class spa.

Fun for Company

In a world where everything is mundane, monotonous and boring, here's a place that has fun as its governing thought. And why not, when like-minded people live together, there should be a thousand fun things to do together. Here's a list, make your pick!

- ✦ Jogging Trail
- ✦ Walking Paths
- ✦ Tennis Court
